CONSTITUTION

NAVY CLUB OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PREAMBLE

IN REVERANT RECOGNITION OF DIVINE GUIDANCE, WE ASSOCIATE OURSELVES TOGETHER TO MAINTAIN TRUE ALLEGIANCE TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND FIDELITY TO ITS CONSTITUTION AND LAWS.

THE OBJECTS OF THIS ASSOCIATION ARE TO FURTHER, ENCOURAGE, PROMOTE AND MAINTAIN COMRADESHIP AMONG OUR MEMBERS; TO REVERE, HONOR AND PERPETUATE THE MEMORY OF OUR DEPARTED SHIPMATES; AND TO PROMOTE AND ENCOURAGE FURTHER PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY AND ITS HISTORY AND TO UPHOLD THE SPIRIT AND IDEALS OF OUR NAVY.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this Association shall be the NAVY CLUB of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA.

ARTICLE II

Organization

Section 1. NAVY CLUB of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA shall be non-political and non-partisan.

Section 2. NAVY CLUB of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA shall be organized into Squadrons and Ships and shall be known as the NAVY CLUB of _____, SHIP NO. _____. The National Executive Staff shall commission Ships and assign Ship numbers in the order they become affiliated with the National Association.

Section 3. For the purpose of promoting the best interests of the NAVY CLUB of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA, the National Executive Staff shall group the Ships into Squadrons.

ARTICLE III

Eligibility and Membership

Section 1. Any citizen of the United States who has served, or is now serving in the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps, or United States Coast Guard (Including service in an active classification in a Reserve Component of any such Service as above described) under honorable conditions or has an honorary discharge, shall be eligible in the Navy Club of the United States of America.

Section 2. The only status of membership shall be active and associate.

Section 3. No person shall be a member at any one time of more than one Ship.

Section 4. Dues shall be paid on an annual basis.

Section 5. Membership cards shall be inscribed with an expiration date of the month and year.

Section 6. Membership in the Navy Club of the United States of America, (for bookkeeping purposes) shall commence on the first day of January and terminate on the last day of December.

Section 7. Membership dues collected by any member or Ship shall be the property of the Navy Club of the United States of America until pro-rated and distributed as provided for in Article I, Section 2 of the By-Laws.

Section 8. All Ships shall pay to the National Headquarters of the Navy Club of the United States of America the per-capita share of such membership dues on a monthly basis, or more often and shall be mailed to reach the National Membership Database Chair by the last day of the month. Any Ship receiving dues from a member of the "Member-At-Large" roll, shall immediately forward the full amount to the National Office.

Section 9. Disciplinary action may be taken by the National Executive Staff on any Ship failing to comply with this Article in its entirety, by removal of their Commission or other action deemed necessary.

Section 10. Associate membership shall be appropriate for those individuals not qualified for regular membership in the Navy Club of the United States of America, and who espouse the principles and purposes of the Navy Club of the United States of America as contained in the Congressional Charter.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1. The Annual Convention shall elect a National Commandant, National Senior Executive Officer, National Junior Executive Officer, National Paymaster, National Chaplain, National Historian., National Master-at-Arms and three (3) National Trustees. National Trustees shall serve a three (3) year term, with one (1) Trustee being elected at each National Convention.

Section 2. The Annual Convention shall elect a National Executive Secretary for a term of three (3) years, with the stipulation that he/she may be removed from office, without cause, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the delegate body at any subsequent National Convention.

Section 3. The National Executive Staff shall consist of the following persons:

- a. Those officers named in section 1 of this article

- d. Upon formal approval of being selected as host of the National Convention, the hosting Ship, Squadron or National Executive Staff shall be hereinafter referred to as "Host"
- e. At the National Convention one (1) year prior to their hosting the Convention, the "Host" shall submit to the National Executive Staff, the actual convention dates, tentative program schedules for each convention day, registration fees, room rates and any other information required by the National Executive Staff. The "Host" shall present a progress report, written or given in person, at all National Executive Staff meetings until the start of the National Convention they are hosting. The "Host" shall be financially responsible for the accommodation expenses, PNC breakfast/luncheon and banquet tickets of the National NCUSA Commandant, National Auxiliary Commandant, and all guests invited by the National Executive Staff to attend the National Convention. The "Host" shall not be financially responsible for the transportation expenses to and from the National Convention site of the aforementioned personnel. The "Host" shall not receive financial assistance from or share National Convention profits with the NCUSA National Organization.

Section 4. The officers of each Annual Convention shall be the National Officers of NAVY CLUB of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA.

Section 5. At each duly called Convention or prior thereto, the National Commandant shall appoint a Committee on Credentials, a Committee on Resolutions and a Committee on Elections, each to consist of at least ten (10) members from Navy Clubs in good standing. Five (5) members of each of the foregoing committees shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6. Any Navy Club in good standing shall, at the time of electing its delegates for a Convention, as herein specified in Article VI, Section 2 of the Constitution, shall chose an alternate for each delegate. The said delegates and their alternates shall be members in good standing of the Navy Club they represent; and they shall be elected by such Clubs not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the date of the annual Convention and their election shall be evidenced by a certificate duly authenticated by the Commander and Shipswriter of the Club. In the event that any Navy Club shall fail to certify the election of its delegates and alternates, as herein set forth, the Committee on Credentials shall have the right to determine as to the seating of the delegates and alternates for such Club.

Section 7. All resolutions shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, in writing for its consideration and recommendation to the Convention.

Section 8. The Committee on Elections shall have general charge of the elections and of distributing and counting ballots. When Election Committees is serving as a Nominating Committee, it shall investigate, interview and recommend candidates for elective offices to the National Convention. The Nominations Committee shall require all prospective candidates to submit for review, a valid discharge document as proof of eligibility. Nominations may also be made from the floor.

Section 9. National Officers, by virtue of their offices, shall not be entitled to vote, unless they attend as accredited delegates.

ARTICLE X

Amendments

Amendments to these By-Laws may be made from time to time as provided in Article XII of the Constitution.
